DID YOU KNOW?

- California serves 6,217,002 students in 1,192 school districts; over one-third of the districts are categorized as "rural."
- California has not only the largest number of ELs of any state, but also the greatest proportion of ELs of any state.
- Schools in California must report the number of students who have a home language other than English for any language group that constitutes at least 15% of the school's enrollment.
- California's Clearinghouse for Multilingual Documents has various parental notifications in other languages.
- Across the 58 counties in California, the number of ELs reported ranges from 0 to 396,402; three counties report serving fewer than 50 ELs.
- Proposition 227 made Structured English Immersion the instructional approach for English-language development; however, parents may sign waivers requesting bilingual instruction.
